

○System for reduction and exemption of tuition fees

Students who have difficulty paying for tuition due to their economic situation may be selected for a 50% reduction or full exemption of tuition fees. This is granted in semester units. There is also a system for deferred payment.